Orlando, FL – The Hurricane Junior Golf Tour (HJGT) and Perfect Hands Golf (PHG) are excited to announce an innovative strategic partnership. The collaboration is designed to help junior golfers realize their dreams of playing golf in college, by accelerating their player development levels with the unique and patent-pending PHG system.

Founded in 2007, the Hurricane Tour has become the largest junior "grass roots" golf tour in the United States, hosting over 300+ tournaments annually across 30 US states.

"This partnership is a big step forward for our junior members, using the most effective golf swing training system we have ever tested," said Rex Grayner, Vice President of Business Development at HJGT. "The Perfect Hands Golf system is ideal for safely teaching juniors the proper body and hand positions during the golf swing, and the strength building elements are producing gains in clubhead speed and driving distance which we have not seen from other swing training products on the market."

"We are very excited to partner with the Hurricane Junior Golf Tour," stated Mario Karagianis, CEO of Perfect Hands Golf. "We believe this partnership is at the forefront of the industry in terms of advancing junior golf, and our Perfect Hands Golf system will provide the tools needed for Hurricane Tour members to accelerate their learning curve and build higher clubhead speed. Our system works for golfers of all ages in every stage of player development."
