

World-Renowned Coach Chris Como to Debut as Golf Live Partner at the 2023 PGA Show

Golf Live, the revolutionary app that allows golfers and coaches to connect for live lessons at any time from any location, announced an exciting partnership with Chris Como.

Chris and Golf Live will kick off this partnership at the 2023 PGA Show from January 24 – 27 at the Orange County Convention Center in Orlando, Florida. Those attending the PGA Show will have the opportunity to meet Chris on Thursday, January 26th at 10AM at Booth Number 3413. If you'd like to make an appointment at the PGA Show, please email Golf Live's Director of Business Development Allan Belden at allan.belden@golfliveapp.com

"I seek out partnerships that enhance my communication and can help optimize my skills as a coach," said Como. "Today more than ever, it's important to connect with golfers in real time, have access to more students, and to have the ability to host 'micro sessions' to be more efficient. The Golf Live platform helps accomplish this and more with technology and tools that create an experience unlike any other in the golf space. Golfers all over the world can now be confident they're receiving exceptional coaching in an extremely effective and convenient manner with Golf Live."

"We couldn't be more excited to have Chris Como on board," said Golf Live Founder Keith Scioli. "We built Golf Live to challenge the status quo of golf instruction. We believe it can be delivered differently, in a more efficient and effective manner to all golfers. Whether you are a scratch golfer or the beginner golfer with a busy job and family, our mission is to be here for you on your terms and provide more than just a lesson."
