

SWING CONTROL RETURNS TO THE 2023 PGA SHOW

-After a successful trade show season, the stylish apparel brand will present its new 2023 spring collection at the upcoming PGA Show-

MONTRÉAL, CA. – DECEMBER 6, 2022 – Swing Control, manufacturers of the performance-based golf and lifestyle apparel brand, today announced plans to again exhibit at the PGA Show in Orlando, Florida, January 24-27, 2023.

Swing Control will present their new wide-ranging line of shorts, skorts, pants, and dresses from the 2023 spring collection with buyers at booth #5667, located in the apparel section of the show floor.

“We are thrilled to exhibit at the PGA Show,” said Swing Control Brand Manager Josh Mark. “The event provides us another opportunity to connect personally with our key accounts and buyers who will appreciate our new on trend 2023 spring collection.”

Swing Control welcomes PGA Show attendees to visit the company booth #5667 where the new 2023 spring collection will be on display. If a scheduled meeting time is preferred, please reach out as follows:

About Swing Control:

Swing Control is an international golf apparel and lifestyle brand with headquarters in Montréal, Canada. Its origins evolved from a lifelong love of golf combined with a fierce passion of fashion. The founders who manufactured women’s clothing in the late seventies and eighties observed that there was a real need in golf for performance-ready gear that was also fashionable and sophisticated, so in 2009 the company evolved into Swing Control.

The Swing Control motto, “Where fashion meets function” describes the golf lifestyle apparel line perfectly. The company focus is in hitting that perfect balance between fashion and function at the core of every collection.
