Fairway Leathers Inc is a family owned and operated business founded in 2014 by Chuck Kendall, a lifelong avid golfer who dedicated his heart and soul to the game of golf. After a prolonged illness that would prevent him from playing the game he so loved, he decided to turn his time and efforts into making Fairway Leathers a successful golf accessory business so he could remain "in the game". We continue to honor the legacy of our brother Chuck and his love for the game. His passion for golf has transferred to these products.
