The PGA Merchandise Show is organized by PGA Golf Exhibitions, a division of Reed Exhibitions, in partnership with the PGA of America.

The PGA Merchandise Show 1954-2020

From the trunks of cars in 1954 to the industry's most comprehensive international golf business event, the PGA Show traditionally features:

- Some 1,000 leading golf companies and brands within nearly 10 miles of Show aisles.
- One million square feet of interactive exhibit, product demonstration and industry presentation space at the Orange County Convention Center in Orlando, Florida.
- PGA Show Demo Day featuring 100 golf companies within 200+ hitting bays, practice greens, golf cart test track and the vendor village of the 42-acre Orange County National Golf Center in nearby Winter Garden, Florida.
- Nearly 40,000 influential PGA Professionals, manufacturing executives, retailers, global industry leaders and top decision-makers.
- Countless opportunities for new product discovery, new equipment and technology testing, golf fashion introductions, merchandise sourcing, education programs and professional networking.
