

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Golftini to Exhibit at 2025 PGA Buying Summit in Frisco, Texas

Chicago, IL – June 15, 2025 – Golftini, the fashion-first golf apparel brand known for blending elevated style with on-course performance, is excited to announce its return to the PGA Buying Summit, taking place July 28–30, 2025, at PGA Frisco in Texas.

Exhibiting at Booth #815, Golftini will showcase its Fall 2025 ‘Coast & Toast’ Collection, available for immediate availability, as well as offer an exclusive preview of Spring 2026’s ‘What Should I Wear?’ Collection, arriving in December 2025 and January 2026.

Celebrating 20 years of bold prints, flattering fits, and unmatched performance fabrics, Golftini continues to redefine golf apparel for women and men. Attendees can expect fresh styles, innovative textures, and show-only specials that bring added value to every order.

The Fall 2025 Coast & Toast Collection introduces a range of new printed and patterned skorts designed to turn heads both on and off the course. Highlights include playful designs like Ship Wreck, First Mate, Hidden Treasure, Sand Bar, and more — all featuring signature Golftini details, flattering fits, and fabrics designed for the course & beyond.

“We’re excited to connect with our partners and unveil what’s next for Golftini,” said Susan Hess, Founder and Designer. “Coast & Toast brings a nautical feel inspired by Nantucket, with seersucker blues, soft pinks, and classic khakis. It’s fresh, fun, and full of coastal charm.”

To book an appointment please click here or contact parker@golftiniwear.com for more information.

